2. communication: demonstrate effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.

3. social responsibility: demonstrate intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. personal responsibility: demonstrate the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.
- 5.

Course Purpose: To acquaint students with the diversity of American history and to promote critical thinking in interrelating the past to the present. Fundamentally, the course promotes general understanding of a body of knowledge any student should know.

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, he/she should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students should demonstrate familiarity with the evolution of the nation and its role in the world from the mid-nineteenth century to the early twenty-first century. This would include the following themes:

- American culture
- religion
- civil and human rights
- technological change
- economic change
- immigration and migration
- urbanization and suburbanization
- the expansion of the federal government
- the study of U.S. foreign policy

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

Course Focus

This Semester we will be studying the history of the United States from Reconstruction through the early 21st Century. We will learn about important events, people, inventions, and ideas that have shaped our nation and our shared heritage as Americans. We will learn about the role of the United States in an industrializing world, and its emergence as an economic, military, and political superpower. We will study the economic, social, and cultural practices of the United States, and will learn about the origins of those practices. We will also learn to use the variety of tools and methods utilized by historians to study history.

Student Attendance, Contributions and Behavior

Students must attend class to be successful. Students must attend class to be successful. Students who stop attending a class should go through the procedure for dropping a course- If a student fails to drop a course they no longer attend, or one in which they are not completing coursework, the student will be assigned the earned grade at the end of the course.

All Students are required to read their text according to the lecture schedule above. Students should be prepared to contribute to class discussion of the lecture topics. Exams will be based on both lecture and discussion of the text, and students should maintain careful notes in order to prepare for these exams. Students are responsible for all missed reading assignments, notes etc.

Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Disruptive behavior includes unrelated reading or doing coursework unrelated to this history course, the unauthorized use of electronic devices, sleeping, talking during lecture, etc. Appropriate remedies will apply, including expulsion from the class, if necessary.

Course Grading (Important information in bold lettering below- take note!)

Your grade for this course will be based on:

- 1) Thirty six equally weighted reading and lecture quizzes with a potential of 100 points each. Total 3600 potential points
- 2) Seven critical thinking exercises with a potential of 100 points each. Total 700 potential points

The final grade will be determined according to the following table:

A=3870 + points

B=3440-3869 points

C=3010-3439 points

D=2580-3009 points

F=2579 or fewer points

Another way of understanding the grading is that you have 43 equally weighted grades, scored on a 0-100 scale- the average of your grades on a scale of 0-100 will determine your final grade. 90+ is an A, 80-89 a B, 70-79 a C, 60-69 a D, and 59 or lower an F. Please Note! Your % score in the Globalyceum gradebook displays as a running total, meaning that it does not show missed grades. Your final grade will differ from that % score if you fail to submit any grades. Always use your cumulative points to determine what grade you have currently achieved, and how many more points you will need to achieve a particular grade for the semester.

No makeup exams will be given, unless arrangements satisfactory to the instructor are made at least three days prior to the exam date. An exception can be made if a verifiable emergency prevents a student from taking the exam at the assigned time and date.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Statement

Any students who, because of a disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make and necessary arrangements. Students must present appropriate verification from the SPC Disability Service Office during the instructor's office hours. Please note that instructors are not allowed to provide classroom accommodations until appropriate verification from the SPC Disability Service Office has been provided.
